ABOUT THE SITE

Alaska's parks, forests, and refuges are rich and varied. The Alaska Public Lands Information Centers help visitors and residents to have meaningful, safe, enjoyable experiences on public lands, and encourages them to sustain the natural and cultural resources of Alaska. These centers provide trip-planning, interpretation, and education for all ages.

POSITION SUMMARY

The CVA will help rejuvenate our program by gathering volunteers again for our National Public Lands Day events, and National Park Service week. The CVA will focus on diversity recruitment in our many diverse communities, working with our partners to continue to establish volunteer opportunities with BSA, GSA, 4H, Boys & Girls club, Camp Fire, YMCA, YWCA, etc. The member will help find assistance to maintain visitor center operations, be the lead in finding volunteer speakers for the summer weekly scientist programs, find volunteers for the spring watershed program, find volunteers for the winter Fur Rondy & dog musher program, find volunteer assistants for the Fall-winter-spring after school programs. The CVA will assist with social media campaigns to engage volunteers & build interest, and find volunteer assistants for the summer refuge bird watching program. Our hope is to reconnect with the communities and programs that our past CVAs established prior to COVID in 2016, 2017, 2018, and 2019.
